

U.S. Cotton Market Is in Critical Stage

By OVID A. MARTIN

WASHINGTON (AP)—The market for U.S. cotton continues to deteriorate with serious economic implications for the entire industry as well as for other segments of the economy and agriculture.

The outlook is dark because of doubts Congress will be able to agree on farm legislation designed to help cure what ails the one-time king of the world export market—overpricing in relation to its competitors.

A new measure of the seriousness of the situation was given in an Agriculture Department report today which made another reduction in estimates of cotton to be sold in markets during the marketing year ending July 31. As a consequence surplus stocks in government hands will increase.

All this means that cotton acreage under a government control program will have to be held at lower levels for several years. Further, this means that land which normally would be used to grow cotton will be used to produce other crops, some of which themselves are in surplus supply.

The cause of this all is the fact that U.S. cotton is priced too high in relation to synthetic fibers and to competitive cotton grown in other parts of the world. Cotton's price is determined by an agriculture department price support program.

Last fall, the department predicted that 13.6 million bales of cotton would be sold during the current marketing year. But as the season moved along the agency began reducing its estimates. Cotton was not selling as readily as had been expected.

By April, the department had reduced the sales estimate to around 12.3 million bales. But in another report issued today, the figure was cut to 11.8 million bales. It is possible that the final figure will be even lower.

The big loss is in the export market. Last season 5 million bales were sold abroad. In the 1959-60 season, exports had totaled 7.2 million bales. Foreign sales this season had been forecast last fall at nearly 5 million bales. But that figure has been reduced to not "in excess of 3.5 million bales." Domestic usage is being forecast at 8.3 million bales, down 700,000 from last season.

Because of these market losses, the reserve and surplus of cotton had climbed to 11.1 million bales, an increase of 3.3 million bales this marketing year and the highest since 1957. Tied up in government hands are 9 million bales costing about $1.4 billion.

The loss of markets has led to tightening of production controls and the smallest acreage this year since 1958.

Favors Missouri Plans for Judges

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Retired Texas Supreme Court Justice W. St. John Garwood told the Arkansas Bar Association Thursday he favors the so-called Missouri plan of selecting judges.

Under that plan, all judges are appointed, then an election is held to determine if the appointee keeps his post. The judge does not have to run against an opponent. If his appointment is not approved, the process of selection is repeated.

Garwood said at a convention luncheon honoring the judiciary, "I don't see how a high-minded prospective judge, or any judge, can fail to sicken a bit at the thought of having to go around at election time soliciting money and other aid from the very lawyers whose cases he will have to decide."

Rockefeller Has Support of Dewey

NEW YORK (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller has received significant political and personal support from former Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, twice a Republican candidate for president and a major figure in the nomination of former President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Dewey said in an interview that he considers Rockefeller the logical nominee to oppose President Kennedy in the election next year.

Dewey was supported by more than 2,700 Republicans as he welcomed Rockefeller and his wife back from their honeymoon and wished them "long lives, great happiness and success for many years."

Dewey extended those greetings to the Rockefeller at the annual $100-a-plate fund-raising dinner Thursday of the state GOP.

Rockefeller is a potential candidate for the Republican nomination for president next year. There has been extensive discussion over whether his recent remarriage has diminished his prospects of winning the nomination.

His first marriage of 31 years ended in a divorce obtained by his wife 15 months ago. His new wife, the former Margaretta Murphy, divorced her husband and the father of her four children five weeks before she married Rockefeller.

"I think she's great," said Republican National Chairman William E. Miller, a New York congressman.

Miller said Thursday night he would not seek reelection as Republican national chairman when his present term expires at the GOP National Convention next summer. He also confirmed he would not seek re-election to Congress.

Camden Radio, Inc. submitted a high bid of $2,100 on personal property and operating equipment of KAAB, Commonwealth Hot Springs Theaters bid $7500 for the station's tower atop the Malco Building in Hot Springs.

Camden Radio, Inc. bid $900 for common capital stock in Spa Broadcasting Co., Inc. which was involved in the auction because of its sale several years ago to the founder of Phoenix Broadcasting, Inc.

Camden Radio, Inc. also bid $500 for capital stock in the Phoenix Broadcasting Co., Inc. which operates KAAB.

Sale of assets of the station are still subject to approval of the court. Sale of stock in the Phoenix Broadcasting Co. is subject to the approval of license transfer by the Federal Communications Commission.

Representatives of the Internal Revenue Service said the federal government holds a lien of $9,851.29 against the Phoenix Broadcasting Co. and $7,838.95 against Harmon I. Mosley, president of Phoenix.

Architect Board

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus appointed U.S. Branson of Blytheville and Howard Eichenbaum of Little Rock to five-year terms on the state Board of Architects Thursday.

JFK Plans to Meet Macmillan on Europe Trip

IN THE WEST WITH KENNEDY (AP)—President Kennedy will meet with British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan for informal talks during Kennedy's late-June trip to Europe, the White House announced today.

Pierre Salinger, White House press secretary, said Kennedy and Macmillan would get together late on June 29, following the President's visit to Ireland. Kennedy then will continue on to Italy June 30.

Before Kennedy left the aircraft carrier Kitty Hawk to witness military displays ashore, Salinger read a statement which began: "As it is now six months since they last met and there are a number of problems they can usefully discuss, President Kennedy and Prime Minister Macmillan have felt it would be useful to take advantage of the President's trip to Europe to have informal talks together."

Kennedy and Macmillan will confer in Sussex.

The two leaders last met in the Bahamas in mid-December. At that time, they developed a joint plan, now the subject of much inter-allied controversy, to equip the North Atlantic Treaty Organization with a multinational nuclear force that would include Polaris missile firing ships.

Local Park Facilities Excellent

June is National Recreation Month, and for the second in a series of articles recognizing Hope's recreational facilities, let's mention the park, playground and picnic facilities.

The three park areas, Fair Park, City Park and K-Park cover a total of some 65 acres.

Fair Park and City Park, both primarily family recreation areas, have picnic areas, large playground areas, regulation lighted Baseball Fields, Tennis and Basketball courts, wading pools and swimming pools. Hundreds of people visit these parks annually to take part in the various activities available.

The swimming pools, which offer free swimming lessons during two summer sessions, are modern and well equipped and are attended by over 16,000 persons annually.

K-Park, an area designed primarily for kid athletic events, has a lighted Little League Baseball and Football field with concessions stand, rest rooms, store-room etc. A small, brightly colored playground area occupies smaller children while the older brother is playing Baseball or Football. Activities at K-Park are attended by from 25,000 to 30,000 persons annually.

All the City Park areas are maintained as well as possible with available labor.

Winners in Contest Are Announced

Winners in the "Eyes To The Future" contest which appeared in the Star during the month of May, are:

Identification contest, first prize of $25 to Velora Bright, second prize of $15 to Iris Bohannon, and third prize of $10 to Margie Vickers.

In the friendliest person contest, first prize of $50 went to Mrs. Laveta Mouser, second prize of $30 went to Jim James, and third prize of $20 to Brenda Vickers.

The Star wishes to thank everyone who participated in the contest and the merchants who made it possible. We believe that the contest promoted a lot of good will, put the spotlight on business personnel and provided a wholesome, entertaining venture, which was just what it was designed to be.

A numerical listing showing names and business association of those pictured on the three pages is in today's Star.

Among the local lawyers attending the Arkansas Bar Association meeting at Hot Springs was Judge Royce Weisenberger who also attended the Executive meeting of the Arkansas Judicial Conference as a member of the executive committee.

Judge Robert Launius of Camden is President and Judge Lyle Brown of Hope is vice-president of the Judicial Conference.

In her absence, Mrs. F. J. Elson, Little Rock, American Legion Auxiliary president, has named Mrs. Joe Jones, vice-president of the Western Division, to be on hand to bring greetings from the organization at the opening session of Arkansas Girl's State at Camp Robinson, June 9.

Mrs. Ray Allen will accompany her on the trip.

Gilbert A. Thomas, 1504 Pecan, Hope, will enter the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary at Louisville, Kentucky in September as a student in the school of church music.

He graduated from Webster High School, Tulsa, Okla. in 1949 and from Oklahoma Baptist University in 1954.

He was director of music at First Baptist Church, Hope, Ark.

The Rev. Rufus Sorrells has been transferred to the Conway District and will serve as pastor of the First Methodist Church of North Little Rock.

Dr. A. B. Wetherington of Ouachita Baptist College will be guest speaker Sunday at the Marlbrook Baptist Church, near Blevins.

Dr. Wetherington was superintendent of the Blevins schools about 25 years ago.

Here is the revised schedule for the Youth Center during the summer: Tuesdays through Saturdays, open from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. for Junior and Senior High students.

Tuesday night from 8 p. m. to 11 p. m. for Senior High students only.

Saturday nights from 7 to 10 p. m. for Junior High students only.

Hope's Mack McLarty is the Governor of Arkansas today, handling official business such as signing bills, etc. This is the day the officials of Boy's State take over the State Capitol.

Mack, elected Governor, is performing Mr. Faubus' duties from the Capitol.

Another Hope youth, Al Weisenberger, named a Supreme Court Justice, is performing similar duties in the Justice Building.

This is quite an honor, having two Hope youths named to high offices in Boy's State and local residents are very, very proud of them.

Bennett Fears Trouble on 19th of June

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett told the Arkansas Peace Officers Association Thursday that he feels June 19, which he referred to as "Emancipation Day," will be a crucial day in the area of race relations.

Bennett declined to elaborate on this remark in a talk to delegates to the association's annual convention, but he said peace officers face a difficult task in days ahead.

"The situation is getting out of hand and no one knows what the eventualities will be," he said. "I hope the general public will retain its respect for peace officers in the delicate tasks they are performing."

Bennett did not say why he called June 19 "Emancipation Day." Little Rock Negroes plan to observe the Emancipation Centennial June 23, but C. H. Jones, editor of a Negro newspaper, said no demonstration was planned and he knew of no demonstrations set for June 19. President Lincoln signed the Emancipation Proclamation Jan. 1, 1863.

The Peace Officers Association started a new move Thursday toward establishment of a state Police Academy. A move to set up such a school failed in the 1963 Legislature, because no funds were appropriated for it.

Retiring President Marlin Hawkins, sheriff of Conway County, was directed by the delegates to name a study committee to outline new ways of promoting the academy.

W. H. L. Woodyard, director of the Motor Vehicle Division of the state Revenue Department, was elevated to the presidency of the association. He has been first vice president.

Maj. Roy L. Johnson of the State Police moved from second to first vice president and Ralph S. Harris, a federal Fish and Wildlife Service agent, moved from third to second vice president. Sheriff Fred B. Hayes of Sebastian County was elected third vice president.

The club shoots from October until April at the National Guard Ammory.

McNab Church Plans Revival

A gospel meeting begins Monday night, June 10, at the McNab Church of Christ and will continue through Sunday night, June 16, with John H. Cannon of Duncan, Okla. doing the preaching.

Walker Boatman of Gordon will direct the song service. The meetings start each night at 7:45 o'clock.

1 Killed, Another Hurt in Race Riot, 7 Negroes Jailed

LEXINGTON, N.C. (AP)—Seven young Negroes were arrested here today on open charges in the aftermath of a race riot Thursday night that left one white man dead and a newspaper photographer wounded by gunfire.

Lexington city officials went into conference to make plans to check any similar outbreaks of violence in this racially tense furniture manufacturing town of 18,000 in Piedmont North Carolina.

Police gave this rundown of the arrests: Charles Poole, 16; Robert Neal Hairston, 16; Sonny Calhoun, 17; Larry Wayne Winston, 16; William Chester Johnson, 18; Joe Poole, 19, and Roosevelt Smith, 23, all of Lexington.

Officers said that Hairston had a home made "zip gun" in his possession when arrested. Winston, officers added, had a single load shotgun with him and Johnson was carrying a 22 caliber sawed off rifle.

Violence erupted Thursday night on the heels of attempts by Negroes to gain service at segregated cafes, a theater and a bowling alley in the downtown area.

A mob of about 2,000 white men gathered on one side of a street bordering the Negro section of the city of 18,000.

About 100 Negroes assembled on the other side of the street. Police said the two groups threw rocks, bottles and sticks at each other. Some of the bottles were filled with gasoline.

A Negro girl was struck in the head by a rock. Police cars were pelted with rocks and bottles. Windows were broken in a nearby Negro church.

Then a barrage of shots came from the direction of a Negro apartment building.

Art Richardson, 25, a photographer for the High Point Enterprise, was struck in the back. He collapsed into the arms of a deputy sheriff.

Another shot struck Fred Link, 24, of Lexington. Link died en route to a Winston-Salem hospital. The bullet struck him in the head. Richardson, father of four children, was in "stable and satisfactory" condition.

The crowd began dispersing after the shootings, but police brought on fire hoses and scattered those remaining.

Several Negroes were treated for cuts from flying glass. A white man, James Comer, 23, was charged with striking a Negro girl in the face. There were no other arrests.

Davidson County Sheriff Homer Lee Cox asked the state Highway Patrol for aid. Twenty troopers were dispatched from Greensboro, 30 miles away.

The violence here overshadowed a mass demonstration at Greensboro, where 287 Negroes were arrested after they sat down in a midtown street intersection in protest of segregation policies.

Fulbright Hits Sugar Assignments

WASHINGTON (AP) — Assigning sugar quotas to foreign countries is a "heads they win, tails we lose" operation leaving American consumers without price protection, Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., said Thursday.

Fulbright made the remark before a Senate Finance Committee hearing on the recent rise in sugar prices.

Charles Murphy, Undersecretary of Agriculture, told Fulbright that foreign countries were not holding back to any extent on filling sugar quotas to gain a higher price.

Fulbright, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said he found it a bit ironic that the Agriculture Department is having to plead with countries to fill their quotas after their agents had "swarmed over Congress" when their quotas were being set.

Such a procedure was followed when the board desegregated junior high schools three years ago.

Board President Everett Tucker Jr., would not confirm or deny that the board had decided to move into Phase III of the desegregation plan which originally called for integration of elementary schools in the fall of 1963.

Supt. Floyd W. Parsons said the board had not taken "definitive" action but that mailing the questionnaires would be a logical step if it had so decided.

Parents have been asked to return the questionnaires by June 13, Parsons said.

The board already has assigned 102 Negro students to integrated senior and junior high schools for next year.

Racial Pickets Force St. Louis School to Close

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—Pickets prevented about 500 children from going to school today by forming a human chain around 12 school buses at an assembly area in a predominantly Negro neighborhood.

Sponsored by the Committee for Parents of Transported Pupils, the picketing occurred at Dozier Elementary School and at another bus assembly area half a block away. About 150 persons demonstrated, carrying placards and singing.

Officials dismissed about 500 to 600 pupils when pickets refused to withdraw their lines from the buses. Some pupils began walking to school, an official said.

Pickets said they were protesting their children being taken to what they called segregated schools. A few pickets were white.

Dozier loads 19 buses daily for transportation of pupils to all parts of the city, and four more buses leave from the nearby assembly area.

Philip J. Hickey, superintendent of public schools, made the estimate of 500 children being prevented from attending school. St. Louis public schools recess for the summer next Friday.

Hickey said he had heard more demonstrations were scheduled next week.

The Rev. Frank Madison Reid, who led the picketing, said the move was made to prevent "face-to-face segregation" of the children.

Mothers stepped in front of the buses as they prepared to depart.

The decision for the demonstration came at a meeting Thursday night of Negro parents at the Park Temple church.

Charles Oldham, national president of the Congress of Racial Equality, advised the parents on nonviolent demonstrations.

School officials said 63 buses are used to transport about 5,000 Negro children from five overcrowded school districts to 11 less crowded schools in South St. Louis. The officials said the receiving schools were predominantly white.

L. R. Board Ready for Phase Three

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Little Rock School Board may be about to move into the third and final phase of its court-approved desegregation plan—integration of elementary schools.

This was indicated when it was learned Thursday that school officials are about to send questionnaires to parents of first-graders to be asking them if they prefer a particular school for their children.

Such a procedure was followed when the board desegregated junior high schools three years ago.

Board President Everett Tucker Jr., would not confirm or deny that the board had decided to move into Phase III of the desegregation plan which originally called for integration of elementary schools in the fall of 1963.

Supt. Floyd W. Parsons said the board had not taken "definitive" action but that mailing the questionnaires would be a logical step if it had so decided.

Parents have been asked to return the questionnaires by June 13, Parsons said.

The board already has assigned 102 Negro students to integrated senior and junior high schools for next year.

The world is full of business women if you include those who mind someone else's.

Orioles Down Yanks, Regain League Lead

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

American League managers were set today to try a new game.

It's played with nine men, but some of your best players have to be seriously injured. First manager to fill out a complete line-up card—without erasures—gets a three-week vacation in a band-aid factory.

That might provide a welcome rest cure for the harried managers who watched their players mowed down Thursday night on a two-game program that saw Baltimore regain first place by downing the New York Yankees 4-2 and Washington stretch its winning streak to four games by beating Boston 2-1.

In the National League, Chicago's Cubs edged San Francisco 3-2 in 10 innings to complete a sweep of their four-game series and move into a tie for first place with the Giants and St. Louis, 5-4 winner at Philadelphia. Cincinnati swept a doubleheader from Pittsburgh 7-5 and 10-5.

The Yankees wound up with their wounded member in the series finale that gave the Orioles a 1½ game bulge over the world champions.

Pitcher Jim Bouton, who had a 7-1 record, followed Mickey Mantle into a hospital after he was hit in the face by a line drive off the bat of Jack Brandt in the fourth inning.

X-rays showed no fracture of either the jaw or the shoulder, but 12 stitches were required to close the 1½ gash on his face.

At Washington, Manager Gil Hodges of the Senators lost his hottest hitter when Don Lock was forced to leave the game in the sixth inn., who had 20 hits in 40 at-bats and four homers in four games, suffered an ankle sprain.

Meanwhile, Red Sox Manager Johnny Pesky came up with two additions to his medical list—pitcher Gene Conley is troubled with an ankle injured in basketball play and catcher Russ Nixon.

Conley, who has a 2-4 record, was off stride right at the start against the Senators, giving up a two-run homer to Larry Osborne in the second inning that provided all the runs Washington needed to post its longest winning streak of the season. Conley was relieved in the third inning. Dave Stenhouse was the winner with one-out relief help in the ninth inning from Ron Kline.

The Orioles snapped a 2-2 tie in the eighth inning on run producing singles by Brooks Robinson and Jim Gentile to take the series two games to one. Gentile also drove in the first two Baltimore runs. Dick Hall, working in relief of Robin Roberts, got credit for the victory. Stan Williams lost it.

Rivals Talk Boldly About a Knock Out

NEW YORK AP)—Both welterweight champion Luis Rodriguez and Emile Griffith talk boldly of ending their bitter rivalry Saturday night by a knockout in their return title fight.

But if that happens it will be a bigger surprise than the New York Mets' giving Roger Craig a 10 run lead to play with.

The records show that no one has been able to stop either the 25-year-old champion from Cuba and Miami or the ex-champ from the Virgin Islands and New York.

Griffith, 24, who rates as the better puncher of the two, is a 13-10 favorite to win the 15-rounder at Madison Square Garden and become the first to hold the 147 pound division crown three times.

And he's only a baby compared to Sugar Ray Robinson who had five reigns as middleweight king.

Bitterness has developed between the welters because of the close and controversial decisions in their two previous clashes. Griffith was awarded a split-verdict in their first meeting, a 10-

Cubs Credit Trades for Lofty Status

By BOB GREEN

Associated Press Sports Writer

The Chicago Cubs, triggered by what head coach Bob Kennedy called "the trade of the year," own a share of the National League lead for the first time in more than five years.

They reached their lofty status Thursday when Larry Jackson and Lindy McDaniel, acquired in an off-season trade with St. Louis, pitched them past San Francisco 3-2 and into a three-way tie for first with the Giants and Cardinals.

Their victory over the Giants was their 11th in 13 games and seventh in 10 starts against San Francisco this year. McDaniel nailed it down with a sparkling relief performance and a 10th inning home run.

Kennedy put the "trade of the year" tag on the swap that brought McDaniel and Jackson to Chicago and sent George Altman and Don Cardwell to St. Louis. The Cardinals probably would agree.

It was Altman's pinch-hit double that drove in the winning run in St. Louis' 5-4 triumph over Philadelphia and lifted the Cards into a share of the top spot.

In the only other activity, Cincinnati swept a doubleheader from Pittsburgh 7-5 and 10-5 on the bombing of Frank Robinson and Gordy Coleman.

Baltimore reclaimed first place in the American League, beating New York 4-2. The Yankees' starting pitcher, Jim Bouton, suffered a 12-stitch cut on his right jaw when he was struck in the face by a line drive off the bat of Jackie Brandt. Washington edged Boston 2-1 in the only other game scheduled.

Jackson, who has a 7-5 record and a sparkling 2.06 earned run average, was lifted for a pinch hitter in the eighth when the Cubs tied it 2-2 on Billy Williams' two-run homer.

Barney Schultz got into trouble in the top of the tenth and McDaniel came in with the bases loaded and one out. He promptly picked Willie Mays off second base and then struck out Ed Bailey.

He broke up the game with his homer in the bottom of the 10th, winning his second game in as many days. McDaniel is now 3-1 for the season, with a 1.73 earned run average. He has appeared in relief 19 times and has finished 15 games.

Altman's pinch double scored Ken Boyer in the eighth with what proved to be the winning run for the Cards. Bobby Shantz fought off a Phil rally in the sixth and Ed Bauta and Ray Sadecki worked out of another jam in the eighth.

Robinson hit two homers for the second night in succession, powering the Reds to their first game victory. Jerry Lynch, Smokey Burgess and Bill Mazeroski connected for Pittsburgh. Coleman took over for the Reds in the ninth, driving in five runs with a bases-loaded triple, a single and a bases-loaded walk.

At any stage of the race, McDaniel's game-deciding blow off reliever Billy Pierce was his first hit as a Cub and was no less artistic than his superb relief job in the top of the 10th when he bases-loaded the Giants with the bases loaded and only one out.

The 11,240 fans Thursday rocked Wrigley Field when McDaniel, former ace fireman for the St. Louis Cardinals, first saved the day in the top of the 10th by picking Willie Mays off second and striking out Ed Bailey, and then broke a 2-2 tie by poking his only home since a 1957 clout off Brooklyn's Roger Craig.

McDaniel, 28, a 6-foot-3 right-hander from Florissant, Mo., doesn't even own a bat of his own. He borrowed third baseman Ron Santo's club for his big smash.

"I don't come up to bat too often, you know," grinned Lindy. "I was so busy out there in the top of the tenth, I didn't realize I was first up when we came to bat," continued McDaniel. "I didn't know Billy Pierce had come in for starter Juan Marichal until I stepped up to the plate. When that 2-2 pitch came in waist high, I just swung and away it went."

PITCHING — Lindy McDaniel, Cubs, came on in relief with bases loaded and one out in 10th inning, picked Willie Mays off second base and struck out Ed Bailey to end threat, then hit homer for a 3-2 victory over San Francisco that moved Chicago into tie for National League lead.

BATTING — Jim Gentile, Orioles, drove in three runs in 4-2 triumph over New York as Baltimore regained first place in the American League by .017 points over the Yankees.

Red Sox and Giants Coast to Victories

By Ralph Routhen

In the first night of Doctor's League baseball the Red Sox slugged the Giants 20 to 3 and the Braves outbit the Yankees 18 to 3.

In the first game the Red Sox collected eight runs and there was no stopping them from then on. The Braves scored seven runs in the first inning and went on to win thanks to Danny Pagan's no-hitter. Every out for the Yankees was a strikeout.

Next Thursday night the Red Sox play the Yankees and the Braves go against the Giants.

Rochester Revenged 4 Losses

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Rochester revenged four straight losses at the hands of Arkansas, dropping the Travelers 6-1 in International League baseball Thursday night.

The Travelers wound up with a successful, 8-0 home stand, however. They meet Syracuse tonight in the first game of a 10-day road trip.

In other International League games Columbus trounced Richmond, 11-1. Indianapolis beat Buffalo 8-2. Syracuse edged Atlanta 3-1 and Toronto-nicked Jacksonville 5-4.

Pitcher Bill Short gained his sixth victory against two losses, going all the way for the Red Wings. He allowed the Travelers five hits.

Rochester combined three singles, a walk and a two-base error by Richie Allen for three runs in the third inning. A pair of doubles brought in two more in the fourth and the Red Wings capped the victory with an unearned run in the ninth.

Arkansas got its lone score in the third, on a walk and infield hits by Cal Emery and John Herrstein.

Dear Helen: I have been married 11 years to a man who never grew up. He is obsessed by living beyond his means. Every year there's a new car in front of the house, new suits and new furniture on credit.

Eight years ago, as the bills began piling up, I went to work, it being impossible for my husband to make his champagne tastes fit a beer income. During this time I've had three children and this hasn't been easy what with holding down an office job too.

The last time I announced that we were having another addition to the family (it comes this summer), my husband flew into a rage, began staying out nights and got himself an older woman who is now telling him about life.

One Saturday last month he drove up in another new car, obtained by bank-financed loan. This precipitated a dreadful argument. I resigned from the office to stay home to look after the children. So my husband sued for divorce. The children cry for Daddy and I'm in tears.

Sunday I took them to see him at this other woman's house. She wouldn't let us in. I've talked to

Dear Forsaken: There is no simple solution to a problem as complex as yours. You correctly diagnosed your husband's malady when you describe him as "a man who never grew up."

All of us, in varying degrees, retain some childlike characteristics, and as long as they don't interfere with our responsibilities as mature adults, they may even be quite charming. But symptoms of gross financial, marital, and paternal negligence require rather drastic treatment, possibly by a psychiatrist who could uncover the root of your husband's obsession for living beyond his means.

Apparently his mania for acquiring things he can't afford includes children, which is tough on you and unfair to them. Why he should fly into a rage when you announced the fourth forthcoming blessed event, I fail to comprehend. Such a reaction denotes a dangerous lack of maturity.

Resignation from your job, which you would have had to submit anyway because of your pregnancy, is no grounds for divorce, so how can he sue you? Dry your tears, stiffen up your spine (good for your condition anyway) and march yourself to a lawyer, the professional advisor most strongly indicated for you now.

The only possible advantage to the "waiting game" recommended by your husband's boss, your doctor, and your priest, is that eventually your husband's creditors may repossess his transportation, which will give you and the children another chance to get acquainted with him. Where there's reunion, there's hope, but don't be a hurry to have the fifth child until you're sure that the boat has stopped rocking.

Dear Helen: Do you approve of a school girl having just one girl friend or running with a group in her class? I'm the gregarious sort —like many people but seeing so many of the girls at school parking off in twosome wonder if I'm wrong. —Dixie

Dear Dixie: The more the merrier. This goes for both girl and boy friends. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "Our Five Teenagers."

Have you a problem? Perhaps Helen Worden Erskine can help you. Write her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Wimbly—Dorminey Exchange Vows

The wedding of Miss Judith Nelms Wimbly to Ensign David H. Dorminey took place in the First Presbyterian Church of Hope on June 5th, at 11:00 a. m. The pastor, Dr. W. Kirk Allen, performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Davis Wimbly of Kingsport on June 5th at 11:00 a. m. of Mrs. J. H. Dorminey and the late Mr. Dorminey of Lake Wales, Florida.

A program of organ music was presented before the ceremony by Mrs. Hazel Huntton.

On either side of the chancel stood urns of white gladioli, stock, and daisies. The altar table was lighted with candles.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a short-sleeved gown of bridal white silk mist, with sculptured portrait neckline, molded bodice of Chantilly lace and a dome-shaped skirt terminating in a chapel length train. The dress was embroidered in paillettes and seed pearls. Her headpiece was a circlet of pearls and orange blossoms fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses, daisies, and lilies-of-the-valley.

The maid of honor was Miss Jane Wimbly, sister of the bride. Other attendants were Miss Martha Wimbly, sister of the bride, Miss Nancy Nelms, cousin of the bride, and Miss Virginia Galbreath, all of Kingsport. The maid of honor and bridesmaids wore dresses of willow green linen fashioned on princess lines, with flared skirts. Their open-crowned halo hats were of matching straw trimmed with berries and encircled in veiling. They carried cascade bouquets of white daisies.

Acting as best man was Michael Beatty, of Lake Wales, Florida. Ushers were Randall Lanford of Anniston, Alabama, Towers Dodd of Rome, Georgia, David Williams, Peter Morison, and Joe W. Wimbly, all of Kingsport.

The mother of the bride wore a bone linen sheath dress. Her hat was of white petal organza with bone colored veil. She wore a corsage of white roses, and her accessories were white. The groom's mother was dressed in beige jersey. Her hat was of pink silk and her accessories were pink. She wore a corsage of pink roses.

Following the ceremony the bridal party received in the foyer of the church.

For her wedding trip the bride wore a two-piece aqua silk suit.

Television Has Entered Slack Season

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Television now has entered its slack season.

The vast majority of programs have moved into reruns. Performers are taking off for Europe, mountains, beaches — or more likely — summer stock, the fair circuit or personal appearances.

But the lack of excitement on the small screens of the nation's television sets does not reflect the turbulent activity behind the scenes.

For instance, the busy Goodson-Todman firm has developed still another television word game, "The Missing Link," which it hopes to slip into some network's daytime schedule next season, preferably NBC's.

Meanwhile, one of its six game shows, "Play Your Hunch," is up for renewal at NBC but its future is up in the air. There's a possibility that, if "Hunch" disappears, host Robert Q. Lewis (or even Merv Griffin) might move into the host's spot of the new show which involves a celebrity panel guessing missing words in stories.

At ABC, executives are reported to be taking another hard look at a series, "Channing," scheduled for fall debut and thinking about a replacement. The show has not yet found sponsors. They have also changed the title of the Gene Barry cops-and-robbers show, originally "Amos Burke," to "Burke's Law," which makes it sound like another court-room series—which it isn't.

CBS has some irons in the fire, too. Discussions are in progress which may lead to the departure of its veteran correspondent David Schenbrun, with the network for the past 16 years. He was recently returned to Europe as a roving correspondent after a short period as its top Washington man. There are rumors Schenbrun balked at leaving Washington.

In addition, CBS recently made a precedent-shattering commitment. It has scheduled repeat broadcasts of two documentaries, "Hollywood: The Fabulous Era" and "Hollywood: The Great Stars," in August and September. Reruns certainly aren't unusual, but both of these excellent hour shows were first shown on a rival network, ABC, and such trans-channel repeats are very rare indeed.

Recommended tonight: "Dr. Kildare," NBC, 8:30-9:30 (EDT)—drama about an incurably ill man worrying about a dependent brother.

AIDC Has Picked New Director

MORRILTON, Ark. (AP)—The Arkansas Industrial Development Commission chose a new executive director Thursday but refused to reveal his name.

Commission Chairman Winthrop Rockefeller said an announcement will be made when the new director has made some necessary personal arrangements. He did not indicate when this might be, nor did he say when the man might assume his duties.

The new man will succeed William P. Rock, the only man who has held the job since the AIDC was formed in 1955. Rock is resigning June 30 to open a consulting office in Little Rock.

Selection of the new director came at an unpublicized, special meeting of the commission at Rockefeller's home at Petit Jean Mountain.

Rockefeller, who left for New York after the session, said the selection was unanimous. The commission had some 18 applications to consider.

Come hill ... or high water
Vacations go smoother in a Chevrolet Corvair

Bring on those mountains! They're not so high and mighty when you've got Corvair's gummy six and rear-engine traction working on them.

You scurry up the meanest grades. You move with sure-footed agility on wet pavement, muddy lanes, gravel and other would-be miseries.

And with most of Corvair's weight on the rear wheels, you have easy steering, too. Fact is, the handling's so light and responsive we don't even offer power steering for the car.

And there's more to feel good about. No problems with your radiator boiling

Papacy Seems Closer Than Previously

By BENNET M. BOLTON

VATICAN CITY (AP)—The man who succeeds Pope John XXIII will come to a papacy significantly changed during his reign.

To many people, Catholics and non-Catholics alike, the papacy may seem closer now.

The tradition that Pops seldom leave the Vatican has been broken. Hesitation to receive Protestant leaders has been overcome.

Pope John brought the church to grips with the 20th Century. On Nov. 4, 1958, the day he was crowned, no one dreamed of the changes that were ahead.

Then 76, the pontiff with the heavy features was appraised by many as an interim Pope. There were predictions that the papacy would remain fairly static until the emergence of a strong, vigorous, younger Pope.

Pope John at once shattered that concept, and he continued to sweep away the pieces as his reign progressed. He brought the Pope out of the Vatican and the Roman Catholic Church out of the counter reformation carrying both dynamically into a difficult, modern world.

The major works that marked Pope John as a great Pope were his Ecumenical Council and his major encyclicals "Mater et Magistra" and "Pacem in Terris."

The qualities that endeared him as a person were his sweeping mental grasp of humanity as a single entity and his utter unpretentiousness.

He once said that he hoped his "single and true title of honor" would always be: "He was a priest before God and before the people, a true and sincere friend of all the nations."

The humble farmer's son had a difficult time at first adjusting to the papal or imperial "We" when referring to himself in public address. He would explain to an aide that it was awkward to think of oneself in the plural, and he often reverted to "I."

"Don't interrupt me—I mean us," the Pope once joked.

The new Pope of 1958 wasted no time. One of his first acts was to announce in January, 1959, that he would call an ecumenical—or general—council of all his bishops.

There had been only 20 before in history, the last in 1869-70. Pope John explained that his council would be a council of "aggiornamento"—bringing up to date—designed to help the cause of Christian unity and restore to his own church the pure lines of early centuries.

He labored hard the next four-and-a-half years to bring the project into reality. He set up an elaborate preparatory program to sound out the bishops' ideas and draw up topics.

He held consistories five times for the creation of new cardinals, raising the number from 52 to record highs of 74, 78, 85 and then 87. He brought in cardinals from distant lands where Catholicism is almost nonexistent and let every race be represented. He created the first Negro cardinal, the first Japanese.

He received 250,000 annually in huge weekly general audiences that ran twice the size of his predecessors' audiences. In private audiences he saw princes and kings, prime ministers and potentates, Protestants and atheists—including Soviet Premier Khrushchev's daughter Rada and son-in-law Alexei Adzhubei, editor of Izvestia. No other Pope had ever received such a personality from the Soviet Union.

Cigarette Firms Liable, Court Rules

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—Under Florida law, cigarette manufacturers are responsible for any harmful effects of their products on the human body, the State Supreme Court ruled Wednesday.

The court said manufacturers were liable for damages whether or not by human skill and foresight they were able to determine the long-range effect of use of their products.

The opinion answered a request of the U.S. 5th Circuit Court of Appeals at New Orleans, La., for interpretation of the provisions of Florida law regarding the implied warranty of manufacturers and distributors.

The appeals court granted a rehearing of a suit by the late Edwin Green of Miami against the American Tobacco Co., charging he contracted lung cancer by smoking Lucky Strike cigarettes. The U. S. District Court in Miami cleared the American Tobacco Co. of responsibility and the appeals court upheld the decision.

Green's widow, Mary, sought a rehearing, and the appeals court asked the State Supreme Court for the controlling provisions of Florida law for guidance in hearing the second appeal.

Justice E. Harris Drew wrote that Florida law imposed upon the American Tobacco Co. absolute liability for breach of implied warranty in the death of Green, even though the company could not have known whether lung cancer could result from smoking its cigarettes.

The court said it assumed from the jury verdict in the Green case that, although the company was cleared of responsibility, Green's fatal case of lung cancer was caused by smoking Lucky Strike cigarettes.

Prevailing industry standards should not supplant ordinary requirements for objectivity and truth in the marketing of a product, said the court, as this would shift the risk of latent harm from the seller to the buyer.

Green filed his suit in 1957. He died Feb. 25, 1958. His widow and son Edwin Green Jr., appealed the decision. They are suing for $250,080.

MacArthur Sticks to Blunt Order

NEW YORK (AP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur, presidential-appointed arbitrator in the nation's bitter sports dispute, told the colleges bluntly today they must abide by his decision regarding sanctions and added: "This decision is final."

The general's statement came in the form of a telegram to William W. Russell, president of the U.S. Track and Field Federation, who had questioned MacArthur's edict Thursday ordering colleges to lift their bars against athletes participating in open competition.

Russell, from Houston, had wired the General asking his opinion on two points which were:

1. Are we privileged to approve, authorize or sanction participation of our athletes in competition?

2. Does the AAU meet in St. Louis, June 21-22 compel USTFF athletes to register with and join the AAU against their will as a requisite to participation?

MacArthur replied: "The decision as to sanctions for open meets is set forth in my statement of June 6 as clearly as I can make use of the English language. This decision is final."

The USTFF, squabbling with the Amateur Athletic Union over control of amateur sports in the United States, had ordered its member schools to pass up the National AAU Championships at St. Louis, June 21-22, unless that meet granted joint sanction.

The meet is designed to help to

Farm Prices in a Slight Dip

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The mid-May index of prices received by Arkansas farmers at 269 per cent of the 1910-14 average is one per cent below April and .33 per cent below May a year ago, the Crop Reporting Service said.

The all-crops index and the index for livestock and livestock products are each below a month earlier. The only commodity group indexes showing an increase over last month were oil-bearing crops and meat animals.

Broiler prices at 13.8 cents per pound averaged a cent below April and the same as a year ago.

New Zealand Woman Knew Her Business

By JOY MILLER

AP Women's Editor

NEW YORK (AP)—Estrée Faigan has been a book publisher in New Zealand 16 years. So when she opened an Auckland newspaper last fall she knew from long experience what she had to do.

Here was the story of 12 men who had survived 101 days after shipwreck without food or water on the Minerva Reef, kept alive as much as anything by the heroic Capt. David Piffitt and his daily prayer meetings for the castaways.

This was the kind of courageous survival that stirs public imagination—and sends hopeful prickles up the spine of any publisher worth his hardcover bindings. Obviously, the thing to do was to get publication rights.

As Mrs. Faigan related it here on her way to the American Book Sellers Association convention in Washington next week, she flew immediately to Fiji. That's where the survivors were hospitalized.

There British-born Mrs. Faigan pulled one of the year's memorable coups.

The resulting book, "Minerva Reef," by writer Olaf Ruben, will appear in New Zealand in late summer bearing the imprint of Mrs. Faigan's publishing house. It will be published here next year.

"It's a fantastic story," she says. "They had one match with which they lit a fire to distill sea water for drinking, and their lives depended on keeping the fire burning for the next three months.

"They managed to catch a few fish, their only food. Five died. But I honestly believe the other 12 lived because the captain, a man of great faith, got them together every day for prayers."

Mrs. Faigan started her publishing house as a hobby 16 years ago and in time her husband joined her in it.

Now that she's a widow, she's thinking of spending part of her time in this country. "This is my first trip to the United States, and it's so wonderful I wonder why I waited so long."

River Scenic Road Suggested

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., introduced Wednesday a bill to help states construct the "Great River Road," a scenic parkway running the full length of the Mississippi River.

An appropriation of $2 million would be authorized for each of the 10 states bordering the river to buy right-of-way for road construction, recreational facilities and rest areas and to improve existing roads to parkway standards.

Some Facts of Life in Arkansas

By J. C. TILLMAN

Associated Press Staff Writer

Blaine Sanders of Fayetteville was downhearted this week when his pet, Hortense the Tortoise, disappeared.

But the gopher tortoise was found a short distance from the Sanders home by two boys and returned to a speechless, but glad Blaine, just a short time before the need to go to the hospital for tests for a possible heart condition.

Mrs. A. E. Fortinberry of Jonesboro has a sort of self-haunted green thumb when it comes to raising Easter lilies.

A few years back she took a potted plant and set it outside near the foundation of her home, just to see if it would live and do well.

The original plant has multiplied several times and it blooms profusely each spring.

This spring, it cut itself producing nine blossoms on one stem.

This, Mrs. Fortinberry believes, is a record of one kind.

Batesville has a freak of nature in a new residential addition of the city—an elm tree and a cedar tree growing as one tree at the base.

Marvin Reeves of Independence County has re-discovered an interesting old relic handed down in his family from the frontier days.

It is an old powder gourd, with a corn cob stopper. He says it was brought to Arkansas 125 years ago, but he doesn't know exactly how old it is.

Joins Seiberling

BATESVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Bill Stanley of North Little Rock, a former Titan II electrical engineer on missile projects in Arkansas, has been named plant engineer for the Seiberling Rubber Co. in Batesville, succeeding John Parks, who will work on new Texas, Tennessee and Missouri and one each from California, Maryland, Kansas, Oklahoma, Arizona and Michigan.

Farm Employment Jumps in State

ATLANTA (AP)—The U.S. Labor Department reported today that non-agricultural employment in Arkansas reached 401,400 in April, an increase of 4,900 over March and 10,000 over April, 1962.

The number of manufacturing jobs in April was 112,000, up 1,000 from March and 400 from April, 1962.

Wants L.A. a Model for Integration

los angeles (ap) — Negro and white civil rights leaders have given Los Angeles a timetable for a "total integration" and received a promise of preliminary action within 10 days.

A six-hour conference on racial harmony resulted in the formation Thursday of top-level committees by integrationists and 50 community leaders. They pledged to turn Los Angeles into a "model city" in the national effort to shatter racial barriers.

But integrationists warned that if their demands die in committee Birmingham-type demonstrations may result.

"We hope for action before the masses unanswerable to any of us here take action upon themselves," said the Rev. H. H. Brokins, a Negro minister.

Integrationists made these demands:

Enactment by the state legislature of strong fair housing laws before it adjourns June 21. If this fails, enactment in July of similar laws by the City Council and county Board of Supervisors.

Redrawing of school district lines before school opens in September to bring about "significant integration of enrollment of these schools."

Establishment of procedure, by January 1964, for presenting individual grievances against law enforcement agencies to independent citizens' review boards.

Elimination of discrimination in industry and labor, plus legislation and contractual agreements to strengthen fair employment practices.

To Petition for New Renewal Vote

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP)—Leaders of a group seeking a second ballot on a $2.6 million dollar urban renewal project at Fort Smith say they hope to present a petition for a referendum to the city council Monday.

The issue was defeated in an April 2 election, but proponents claimed voters were confused by the wording on the ballot. A vote "for" meant a vote against the issue in the first election.

David Gensemen, a pro-renewal leader, said Thursday he had been informed that July 1 was the deadline for earmarking by the federal government of any funds for such a project, but if an election on the issue was called by that time, money for the project would be reserved.

Things You Learn by Reading Mail

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

A California survey of 500 drivers arrested speeding in the wrong lanes found many of them were unconsciously expressing hostility after matrimonial quarrels.

On the other hand, psychologists have found, howling is a ready and harmless release for the anger and frustration raised by frictions within the family. If you're mad at someone, you merely look at the head pin, whisper the name throw the ball and — whammo! Down it goes, symbolically, and you feel better.

President John F. Kennedy at the age of 14 joined his older brother and another school pal in writing a letter to the commander of the French Foreign Legion, volunteering to serve in that famous desert military unit.

Some manufacturers estimate that in the next five years 50 per cent of road vehicles will be rented or leased rather than individually owned.

This year is the 180th anniversary of man's first air voyage. On Nov. 21, 1783, two Frenchmen flew a balloon for two hours and 10 minutes over the rooftops of Paris. They traveled six miles and reached an altitude of more than 2,000 feet.

Less than 30 per cent of the world's three billion-plus people are Christian.

You can save up to 30 per cent or more by sending your son or daughter to a college in the South or Midwest—instead of an Ivy League-type school in the Northeast.

No insurance company would sue a policy on the "Mona Lisa" during its visit here, because the masterpiece was considered priceless. However, 39 companies now have banded together into a syndicate to offer insurance on art treasures to be brought here during the New York World's Fair.

The spider is the latest occupational victim of the space age. Spider webs once used as cross-hairs in optical instruments, are being replaced by lines etched directly on the glass.

Psychologists say one of the best ways to relieve your own tensions in living is to help someone else in trouble.

It was Thomas Carlyle who advised, "Make yourself an honest man and then you may be sure there is one rascal less in the world."
